

CRIMSON WORK-STUDY HONORS COLLEGE

Crimson Scholar Work-Study can only be awarded to undergraduate students who have received the Crimson Scholar recognition from the Honors College.

Students who are interested in the Crimson Scholar Work-Study program must have a request submitted from the Honors College for a Crimson Scholars work-study award.

OVERVIEW

The Crimson Scholar work-study award amount is determined by the honors college and is different for each student. In-state students, out-of-state students, and international students are eligible for this award. Students can not be hired by an off-campus agency.

✓
Current FAFSA on File
for the Aid-
Year

✓
Enrolled in Minimum of 6 Credits

✓
Must Fit in Student's COA Budget.

✓
20 hrs per Week

✓
Meet
Satisfactory
Academic Progress (SAP)

*The Crimson Scholar work-study award for out-of-state and international students does not require FAFSA on file.*

BE BOLD. Shape the Future.®
New Mexico State University

Contact the Honors College
Roman Gutierrez at rgtz129@nmsu.edu